

Could you help make
guiding happen?

We're looking for our next

Are you interested in leading a dedicated team of volunteers? Could you help to shape Girlguiding in your area so that more girls can take part in amazing opportunities? Then volunteering as a commissioner might be for you.

If you are able to lead, motivate and inspire others and are over the age of 18 we'd like to hear from you! We'll give you support and training along the way to help you succeed in your new role.
