

Child safety and wellbeing

Letting girls walk home after the weekly meeting

Letting mum collect a girl, when usually dad would be collecting her

Removing a girl from the unit for a week because they won't behave

Adult safety and wellbeing

Running a bar area for adults on a county camp

One of the older leaders seems to keep forgetting things, so you have decided to only let them help out in the kitchen

Communications

Being friends with a girl on Facebook

Texting a girl to tell them there has been a change of venue

Taking photos of girls, to update the Group website

Physical contact

Sitting a distressed girl on your knee to comfort them

Holding hands with a girl when crossing the road

Standing behind a girl to demonstrate use of climbing equipment

Meeting place safety

Climbing on a chair to open a window

Running after a girl after they have left the meeting place in the middle of activities

Transporting a girl home because they have not been picked up at the end of a meeting

Residential events

Sleeping in the same room with girls on a residential event

After one of the leaders drops out of an event, another parent says they can help, but they have not been through recruitment checks. It's an emergency, so this once you hope it's OK

Not telling parents that their child was sick until they pick them up

Supervising activities

Supervising young people getting undressed for swimming
